

Senator David Perdue
40 DSOB, US Senate
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Perdue,

I hope you will block the nomination of Dax Lopez, the president's judicial nominee for the Northern District of Georgia. Lopez is a board member of GALEO, an organization that supports illegal immigration and opposes immigration enforcement. His appointment would harm American workers and harm those who want immigration laws enforced.

Georgia, like most of the United States, has felt the impacts of illegal immigration. Despite this, the president has nominated Lopez, a board member of a radical open borders group, for a federal judgeship. Lopez's organization, GALEO, has:

- organized and participated in marches in the streets of Atlanta demanding an end to any enforcement of American immigration laws;
- lobbied against Georgia sheriffs' cooperation with federal immigration authorities and congratulated sheriffs for refusing to honor ICE detainers;
- and
- lobbied against any state laws that inhibit the crimes of illegal immigration and illegal employment.

Dax Lopez harbors these views and would find it difficult to rule against the president, or anyone else, who wants to water down or ignore immigration laws. Please block Lopez' nomination and put forward a nominee more likely to support the enforcement of immigration laws.

Phone me if you would like to talk about this, my contact information is on the accompanying Fax cover sheet.
